NEXT MEETING

Monday Dec. 5, 2022

2:00 P. M.

Committee Reports Treasurer – the budget for the year is once again $420.

Home garden tours – nothing on the schedule at this time.

Field Trips – Robin indicated that Botanical Gardens is having a sale this coming weekend that is open to the public. Entry fee for seniors is $12 if you register on the internet. And, if you plan to go, you must register for a spot through the internet.

Marilyn and Sally sent an email about the October To Do list. Helpful and very welcome. Future info sheets will be included in the Hilltopper. Thanks for your efforts on our behalf. Another excellent example of behind the scenes work that is being done by Garden Club members.

Robin is heading up a committee to coordinate a Craft Project for those interested. Specific date for the project will be determined by the committee. It's a wonderful idea that was proposed by Lynn Thomas.

Eventually, there will be a sign up sheet and the total number of participants will be limited; specific number to be determined. An announcement about the project will be included in a future Hilltopper.

The March 23 Ron Wood butterfly presentation will be open to residents of PEW as well as Vallecitos. A possible future speaker will be Kurt Peacock to discuss proper pruning methods.

For your information – compost from Agri-serve is free only to Oceanside residents. Compost from Mountain Meadows Mushroom farm is free to all.

The plant exchange was once again successful. Sheila Miller brought another box of "Not to be sold" flower and vegetable seeds that a neighbor gave her.

Thank you notes to speakers will be provided by artist Ann Kreile.

The following residents have not attended a meeting in quite a while. Please let us know if you still want to be a member. Trish Blalock, LuAnn Foster, Ann Hacker, Dave Kemp, Eileen LaLone, Vicki Petsche, Diana Primeau, and Blythe Stokes.

Read Lessons in Chemistry. You'll love it!!!!!!
