Monday's meeting was a craft workshop. We assembled several varieties of succulent themed centerpieces, some were for personal use and others made pieces for the craft fair.

*November 5th Mosaic workshop at Cathy Byrd's. Terracotta pots were provided. People brought broken ceramic tile pieces to make their mosaic. Lunch was served, chicken soup and bread.

*PEW Craft Fair Saturday 22nd of November. We have volunteers for each shift and we discussed how members can participate in providing items to raise money for the Garden Club. Items for our booth may be brought up to the club house on Friday the 21st between 4 and 5pm

*We will be hosting our Annual Tea Party on Monday December 1st at 2pm. We've invited residents of PEW as well as Vallecitos and Palomar Estates East. Bring your favorite tea cup, also finger food/potluck. Various teas will be provided.

Upcoming Field trips

*November 13th Rogers Gardens in Costa Mesa. Meet at 8:30am, clubhouse.

Free mulch and compost is available in San Marcos at La Moree Road, on the north side, just west of Sandy Lane. The site is open from sunup to sundown Saturdays and Sundays.

Mushroom mulch will be delivered to the Community Garden at noon Saturday November 15th. If you would like some please help us with unloading the delivery at 12 noon.
